Who We Are

We are a company that is made up a family that works together. During this time we have made a name for ourselves that proudly has repeat customers that have utilized our services for over fifteen years. Our services include: entertainment and educational services, as well as designing and creating greeting cards. We believe that helping others through donations/contributions, fundraisers, along with our products and services sets us apart from most companies that have been around for so many years.

What We Do

We have been around for approximately eighteen years entertaining at parties, showers, church events and more; educating individuals through test preparation, private tutoring and organization skills; and lastly designing greeting cards that are two- and three-dimensional, handcrafted and 95% written by the owner and 5% from outside sources (young individuals wanting to express themselves). Our company has its' own in-house musical entertainment company that is ready and available to musically enrich your lives.

Get In Touch

Greeting cards are an outward expression of an inward emotion. They are in intricate way to communicate when you don't know how to put the words together to say, "I'm sorry", "I Love or Miss You", "Just Thinking of You" or even "Congratulations". There are numerous ways to express what you're thinking or feeling and Blessed Thoughts Greeting Cards does just that bless another with your thoughts.
